INDIANAPOLIS, MAY 30, 1843.

State Central Committee.

Hon N. Wear having left the city in hopes of recovering his health, and it not being known at what time he been selected to supply his place ad interim. on Saturday next. By order,

J. P. DRAKE, Chairman. GEO. A. CHAPMAN, Secretary.

The Coon Skinner.

time out at the rate of 15 cents a copy. Come on '

The Past Week -- Coon Skinning.

American and revolutionary tendency of the latter project of Mr. Kennedy's happiest and most effectual efforts. Notwithstanding Gov. Bigger was present, and also some other big coons, not one dared to reply, notwithstanding Mr. city on business, your personal and political friends, sensible K. especially invited the a to do so, promising if they of your high wor has a state-man, pateint and soldier, desire me, he kept as far off as possible-in his hole-but his the wish of, skin came off -and the fur was very course!

Trespay.-All this day the complaints of the coons were heard; and a soulding about, ears down, showed that an attempt was to be made to hide their nukedness. And did Gov. Bigger or any other of the Junto, agree to reply to Mr. Kennedy ! O no; but T Caleb B. Smith TD the Soap Factory Fund Commissioner, who sells Indiana Bonds for Scap Factories, Swamps, Canal boats, and because Three dollars a day, with other items is not possible. The important business which brought me in this enough for swindling the people out of their bonds, ac the time I can's end while here. The kindness of my India. The Other Side of Facts of dollars, which was brought here in cash, came here in the time I can's end while here. The kindness of my India. cepts the small brane of some hundreds of dollars in ad- and friends when I was list here, is brought vivilly to my dition; we say that this Ca'eb B. Smith was one selected mind by this additional menifestation, and showed that there were two different was charged at the custom house; labor in this country by the Junto to do the dirty work. And who, reader, do feel the delt of g at tinde increased. The manner in which of these pamphlets, on page 5, contains an unfair extract thus the revenue was swelled by the heavy importations. Lane! Did you ever hear what Mr. Co'quitt, an old these respects, have yet to lear that the American people are uncertainty and although I have done but my duty in these respects, have yet to lear that the American people are uncertainty and constitution; but it copies one portion of the of foreign goods and even foreign bread stuffs. Besides, would quote the commandments with an ellipsis like the uncertainty our liberties. What would be thought of a man who these respects, have yet to lear that the American people are power to levy taxes—leaving out that part which militates the Yankee skill and ingenuity had enabled the manu-

Well he was the other. So on Tuesday evening they through you, my warm and heartfelt thanks, went at it. Mr. Smith said he was sick, and didn't like to do it; but he went on and tried to defend the Junto's of a State which is fast filling up and making rapid strides stole a wedge of gold, and in another place, in reference the interest on this two hundred millions of debt would forgery, it was a gross attempt at deception. Let us try themselves. The other coon we might as well finish here: and to say he was a perfect bay of wint, would be tilling these who are acquainted with him what they al. ready know. He reminded us of a buzz and in the air with his tail shot off. Runt, rant! His only argument are but three was to dispose of the State debt, to-wit; if such stuff could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern
| A could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern| A could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern| A could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern| A could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern| A could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern| A could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern| A could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern| A could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern| A could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern| A could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern| A could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern| A could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern| A could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern| A could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern| A could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern| A could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern| A could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern| A could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern| A could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern| A could be called argument, was in favor of Repudiation—Direct Taxation by the State Govern| A could be called argument, was in fav the Assumption of the State debts, which he said would ment—or Assumption by the General Government as proIn the other copy the quotation stops with the sign "&c." assumed the debts of the States, the country would be ed to give $400 of the premium to Dr. Coe and myself." the Assumption of the State debts, which he said would pay to Indiana fifty thousand dollars, which might make a pay to Indiana fifty thousand dollars, which might make a possed by Cost Johnson in Congress. He does not present to advocate the propriety of either of these propositions, but still leaving out the part against the without inserting the part against the without inserting the part against the undeard of in the law of nations, as a cause of hostilities. thinks the people can be gulled with such balderdash as and is out of the question; and then goes on to give the himself to be when he went for "Tippecanoe and Tyler to decide which they will choose, and leaving the responcomment. It is right that the whigs of this district should be true? Or has he or it the honesty and the pluck price over four dollars would go into the National Treas and unsulfied for untold ages. who could not attend, and who was supposed to be unfa- that object from the State to the General Government? gain, but would still come out of the pockets of those labored at his trade as a blacksmith, with untiring indus- fraud, and then say if you will support its authors. verable to the Junto's nominee, was rudely thrust from the If there is any misrepresentation about the quoted par- who used the article. So with American flour sent to try. He then commenced the study of law, and has atconvention by resolution! This is the way the People agraph it is not our fault. Let Gov. Bigger come out England, where the lords of the soil, who own large trined to considerable eminence in his profession. It is dissatisfaction was manifested by the Hancock delegation was endeavored to treat him justly and courteously, and lars, flour is sold at twelve dollars. He wished to know have, on several occasions, thought proper to call him as at the obviously unfair means used to oust Mr Walpole; we think we have done so. Having got along thus far who paid the duty, and how long it would take an Ame- their servant, to attend to their business in the councils Soap Factory man and the Selition Law man endorse the power, and there witness her half starved, blear-eyed, and do with it. There was considerable manœuvring as to uncourrequely, we shall not begin to misrepresent and six dollars a barrel, and pay, as contended by certain to Congress from the tenth district, there can be no doubt jective phrase "whole duty;" but let that pass.) The and ignorance of her medium classes,—and then, on the how the convention should vote, pending which, a move abuse him now, when we regard him as a defeated man, wiseacres, six dollars duty. The idea of the producer The determination he expresses, that so far as he is conwas made to dissolve the convention to meet again in June We never yet struck a fallen foe, and think we shall have paying the duty, was ridiculous in the extreme, and men cerned, the West shall be felt in the next Congress, ple, which is impracticable and could never occur; but pampered, amid this vast lazar-house of human wee. Af-But the Junto men knew in that case they would be de- no disposition to do so hereafter. feated, because the delegates could go home and tell the We have said we believed Gav. Bigger to be in faver the British manufacturers, by paying duties on their goods their support. Let every Democrat of the minth district people what they had seen; and the counties disposed to of the Assumption of the State Debts, though for policy's sent here, support our government, the words of retreaching pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether for set free from Juntoish dictation, would refuse to meet sake he is playing the part of non-committalism. We ment, economy, and reform would lose their charm. If the blacksmith Congressman, and his election will be again. Consequently, after all was fixed, the vote was have reason to believe so. He says, as we have stated, foreigners had to support our government, the more certain.

Whig Bi-trict Convention.

Take the whole thing together, it was a very curious wit: Repudiation, or Direct Taxation, both of which we government, it was impossible for it to move on long speech are omitted in the above abstract, as no notes affair. It shows, too, how consistent the whigs are about understand him to discard altogether. The third way of without grease. Men might talk long and loud about were taken at the time of its delivery. the " one term principle." But we think the people, in is disposition is the Assumption scheme of which be patriotism, in their efforts to get into office; but take this case, will suffer Gov. Wallace to remain at home, speaks favorably, or which at least he does not denounce away the tar that keeps the wheels of government in Some, also, of the leading Juntoites, wish to have David as dishonest or impracticable. Put a pig in a pen where motion, and much of it would vanish into smoke. He killed off, fearing that he will be in their way as a candithere are but three ways of egress, stop up two of them, believed that all the revenue it was possible to raise from believed that all the revenue it was possible to raise from believed that all the revenue it was possible to raise from believed that all the revenue it was possible to raise from believed that all the revenue it was possible to raise from believed that all the revenue it was possible to raise from believed that all the revenue it was possible to raise from believed that all the revenue it was possible to raise from believed that all the revenue it was possible to raise from believed that all the revenue it was possible to raise from believed that all the revenue it was possible to raise from believed that all the revenue it was possible to raise from the revenue it was possible to rai date for the U. S. Senate. This accounts in part for their desire to get him disposed of. If, however, the people of desire to get him disposed of. If, however, the people of the did himself. Yankee fashion, we will answer his question and this, with an addition believed that all the revenue it was possible to raise from Baron signed a memorial in favor of a National Bank he did himself. Yankee fashion, we will answer his question at the did himself. Yankee fashion, we will answer his question at the did himself. Yankee fashion and doubt require its use every week, though desire to get him disposed of. If, however, the people of this district shall conclude to leave him at home, and they the Canadian could after the assuredly will, why, he can be driving his stakes with the other great men. We are determined to "head them" all. They have had enough of the people's money. They have had enough of the people's money to day the duty for the primary to a million and a half from the public lands, which was many years ago—so many, that, by its own showing he had a million and a half from the public lands, which was many years ago—so many, that, by its own showing he had a million and a half from the public lands, which was many years ago—so many, that, by its own showing he had a million and a half from the public lands, which was many years ago—so many, that, by its own showing he had a million and a half from the public lands, which was many years ago—so many, that, by its own showing he had a million and a half from the public lands, which was many years ago—so many, that, by its own showing he had a million and a half from the public lands, which was many years ago—so many, that, by its own showing he had a million and a half from the public lands, which was many years ago—so many, that, by its own showing he had a million and a half from the public lands, which was many years ago—so many, that, by its own showing he had a million and a half from the public lands, which was many years ago—so many, that, by its own showing he had a million and a half from the public lands, which was many years ago—so many, that, by its own showing he had a million and a half from th become rich, and are getting sincy. They wish to dictate of any thing. To coous, however, like these of the Jourto all the people; but when their hides come off in August, nal, this inference may not be so clear. We have often let them remain.

Falschood Nailed to the Counter.

them plenty of whiskey and stir them up with a long pole, tars. They should be skinned in August, and their votes are certain." So well were we convinced that no one who knows Mr. Whiteomb, his habits and conversation would for a moment believe that he ever harbor- The Indianapolis Junto of Clay Whigs, have deter- four million fire hundred thousand persons engaged in WM C. Burast, the Poet, who has for many years been of its price" See "Facts for the People," p. 20. ed such a sentiment, that we desidained to contradict that, mined that Dr. Deniss, the Anti-Slavery Candidate for agriculture? Now, suppose we induce, by a tariff, five the editor of that admirable democratic paper, the N. Y.

Mr. Everett also, our present Minister to England, and by certain Governors, Ex-Governors, Ex-Senators, several as well as the other falsehoods that have been so foully Governor, shall back off the track. Gov. Noble seems hundred thousand more to engage in manufactures, would Evening Post. The Journal charged him with the au- whose judgment is quite as good as that of the Bog-Head officers of State, who are anxious to maintain their places, it themselves, but their design is evident. They design speak by the book, when we confidently assert, that the millions of farmers can feed twelve millions of farmers can feed twelve millions of manuto keep us employed in contradicting their misstatements. Junto have come to the conclusion that the coon party facturers and their families. But, said he, look at the been surrounded by federal influences; but as he grew up consumers, a tax on the community, the effect of which is so as to escape any notice of their own conduct, will stand a good chance of being beaten, even if Dr. Mississippi, extending from the Allegbeny mountains to maturity and wisd m, every day furnished additional to encourage the production of those articles at home, staying away, at least the leaders, by an understanding to a man to betray confidence.

Dr. Deming.

In the Breach.

The windy man who blowed so hard at the Court fat till August, and then, Lord! how we'll skin 'em! House with Caleb B. Smith, in cracking up Henry Clay to the skies, and a little higher, told about Mr. Clay throwing himself in the breach during the nullification casioned quite a panic in Menchester. Last week about treaty which he dared not copy into his pamphlet, contest. He ought to have said on the breech, for during 200,000 bags were imported into Liverpool alone -Liver- although containing but a few lines, would itself have rethat whole contest he was on his seat the whole time, until the last moment, merely hissing on Daniel Webster to but his hide must come off with the balance.

Richard M. Johnson.

On Wednesday evening last, this old veteran arrived On Monday evening, 22d instant, the Democrats of his country, and which should expose its author to the will be enabled to return, Dr Josep & Soule, Jr. has had been some time from home, and was anxious to reach say Hoosier blacksmith, it is not for the purpose of ap- clares that Representation and direct taxation must go . it. The old Hero looks, in our opinion, much better pealing to the teelings of the mechanics and laboring hand in hand; and every five negroes counting three May he live many years.

that he would partake of a public dinner during his stay; of age; we have passed our minority as members of the were they both at night? On Monday evening of last week, our citizens and the mittee appointed to invite him to do so. It will be seen selves. strangers now here, listened to a speech from Mr. Kennes by the annexed correspondence, that Col. Johnson's en- Mr. Kennedy confined his remarks to a discussion of clear and exceedingly interesting. He gave a history of in language and no use in punctuation. But what was dy. The Court House was crowded, and an abler effort gagements were such that he could not accept the invi- the Tariff and the Assumption of the State Debts by the the causes which produced the two hundred millions of this done for? But one answer can be given. Besides, we believe has se'dom, if ever, been heard from the stump. tation. This visit, though short and unexpected, has General Government. In relation to a tariff, said he, State debts, now fastened upon the country; and placed what was the last sentence added for ! Because the "se-Mr. K. reviewed the Tariff and Assumption questions, been peculiarly gratifying to Col. Johnson's friends; and there are many fine theories affoat, calculated to mistify the whole matter in a new and interesting light. He rehandling them in a masterly style, and explaining and ilwe only regret that he had it not in his power to remain the subject, and perplex the public mind; and so far as the finding system in England, and its grinding to show that it is a reprint, would not be likely to be so their people by high tar-if-, [the Lord keep us from such tustrating them in a manner at once intelligible and satis- longer with as. We were much gratified to witness the theory is concerned, the parties differed widely as the longer with a state of the long factory. He completely overthrew the coon fabric erections of one of Colonel Johnson's "old soldiers." poles; but when we come to the practical objects to be ation, notwithstanding the heavy interest that had to be varion. But we will see how the Constitution reads—

| Protection ! | Now if a high protective tarill tax is such varion. But we will see how the Constitution reads—
| a benefit to the people and raises so much revenue as he coursed rapidly down his furrowed cheeks as he pressed masses of the whigs with a force and elequence that thrilled the younger days. Old Charley came in for his share of the hearts of his and ence. The forgeries and falsities of honor; and was not much puzzled to tell whether " he the Junto's "Other side of Facts," were placed in a vivid had shot Jim Green, or whether Jim Green had shot light and riddled with a master hand. Some of these him." The Colonel left on Friday morning in the stage, in the Constitution for raising revenue—imposts, excises, capitalists, and in that way benefit that country. He repoints we shall notice by themse'ves We think it one bearing with him the good wishes of all. The following and direct taxation. Imposts is the method now adopted ferred to the National debt, paid off under the administrates:

convenience. That Heaven may abundantly bless you, is

Sir; your obt, serv'ts: GEO. A. CHAPMAN, JOHN CAIN. JAS. P. DRAKE. BANNER LAW HEAD, JULIUS NICOLAI. REPLY.

INDIANAPOLIS, MAY 25, 1843. GENTLEMEN: Your kind invitation of this date, to paris received. The length of time since I felt home, that instrument to prove his position. and urgent business, demands that I should delay as little as esteem and consideration, Your obedient servact.

Noncommittalism of Bigger.

Gov. Bigger, in his speeches, tells the people that there sibility of the choice with them.

The Journal, (perhaps Gov. Bigger himself, for he was in town.) copies the above paragraph from our last paper. curious affair, and shows how completely the Indianapolis insinuations." Now this is certainly a very formidable that there are but three ways to dispose of the debt, to money we could squander, the better! In relation to our Many of the most important arguments in Mr. K.'s thought that the coon was one of the most intractable, as well as one of the most dirty, thieving, looking-one-wayand-feeling-another sort of animals in the world. No We have noticed a statement going the rounds of the whig wonder therefore that the party leaders who choose him papers that Mr. Whitcomb had said of the people "give as their emblem should resemble him in so many particu

A New Move.

Dr. Deming's arguments, but the crowded state of our are in the most beautiful, queer, funny, squabbling, difficult, awful, and silly pickle that can be imagined. Poor devils! how we do laugh at, despise, and pity them! What can be done for them? O, let them run and get Tappan, to induce foreign nations to throw open their

> The importation of 7012 bags of cotton into the whole kingdom, between December, 1782, and April, 1783; oc-pool Mercury. How unfortunate was the assertion of the Journal, that we exported nothing to England. It was so basely false. make war with Mr. Calhoun. That's a mighty poor coon, that Mr. Bradley was obliged, in his speech, to prove esteem for his services. He, however, could only pro- member of the last Congress from Indiana-the Hoosier direct taxation. The moment she did it, she would be mise to remain long enough to finish his business. He blacksmith, made one of his happiest efforts. When we borne down with taxes; for the constitution expresly dethe great valley of the Mississippi is about sending men support the government and her interests crippled. After recruiting himself with a night's rest, he made a from the anvil and the plough handles, who will fearlessly | In the course of Mr. K.'s remarks on the tariff, he in-the time I can s end while here. The kindness of my I.di-one friends when I was list here is brancht vivilly to my Whi'e therefore I feel necessitated to decline this profound against the unconstitutionality of a protective tariff, and facturers now to compete with foreigners, but not as conmark of esteem from my friends. I will again return to them, then skips down to another and couples them all together, tended by some orators, that a high protective taxes to make it so. Will though you me was not be accounted to the skips down to another and couples them all together, tended by some orators, that a high protective taxes to make it so. Will under inverted commas, as one continuous article. The brightened the wits of our people! Now, assuming the wedge of gold. go thou and do likewise;" what, we say, Americans follow the example? cause, the welface of the country, and as citizens Bible, Kennedy remarked, in one place, says, that Ahab position that he believed could not be controverted, that would be thought of one guilty of this? That if not a The debt of Great Britain is $3,700,000,000,000. Poputo a virtuous action, the Saviour had said, go thou and do have to be paid by direct taxation if assumed by the Pamphlet, p. 3. "We have man, woman, and child in the kingdom. This England, likewise; but shall we thence infer, that the scrip- General Government, as well as the principal, if it should no motive to state the true issue between the parties." Is pays her interest annually by taxation, and in what condi-To Messrs. Chapman, Cain, Drake, Lawheal and Nicolai, tures of eternal truth, which will stand as long as the ever be paid. He warned his countrymen against transspheres shall move, commands us to STEAL? He con. ferring the taxing power from the State to the General the Constitution? It is precisely of the same nature. ceived that the man who would thus perrent the Constitute of the C tation of his country, for the purpose of deceiring the peo- to us, and over whose voice we would have very little came over, and as the fund commissioners were receiving Europe. The population of the former is 1,000,000, and our or twenty-five millions per annum. Mr. Kennedy next noticed the equally silly argument It is another evidence, however, of the well known cor sumer would be immense. It strikes as that this must be suggest any thing whatever, in relation either to the artithat we must protect our manufacturers, in order that we ruption of the Bank and the Bank party, who sought and self-evident to every man of common sense. might afford an incidental protection to the farmers of the obtained the signatures of boys and men-of minors and But it it be insufficient, and authority is needed, we retime, about six hundred thousand persons engaged in wheedled by their specious humbuggery. and systematically put forth against him. We are now to be the agent to accomplish this object, and we shall it take the four millions engaged in agriculture to field thorship of a scrap of rhyme against Jefferson, as an im- man or the Soap Factory man, testifies as follows: authorized to say that there is no truth in the above expect to see him meet the Doctor on every corner; yea, them? A farmer, on a moderate calculation, can raise putation against his democracy. It is true he did wine "Prohibiting the introduction of foreign manufactures, twelve persons to conduct the Journal, and it is still such charge against Mr. Whitcomb, and the proof is chalto take him to his country seat, feed and stuff him, &c., provisions enough on a farm of eighty acres to feed those thymes, but he did so, and the Journal knew he had or imposing taxes on them, can benefit the manufacturers a miserable concern, no wonder they suppose we must The publishers of the above falsehood do not believe and all for the glory of Henry Clay, a slave holder. We three families besides his own; hence these four sestated, while he was a school boy, and only THIRTEEN only so far as it tends to increase the price in our own have the assistance of James Whiteomb and that of their leaders. We shall treat them accord- Deming should not run: and they admit among them- to the Gulf of Mexico; look at her fertile soil; see that evidence to his mind that the impressions of his childhood whereas it does not need encouragement if it is the most that the Hard Cider Demagogue named above, in his late selves that they certainly will be if he does run. Hence not one acre in ten of her lands is redeemed from the were erroneous, and that federalism was but another name the mighty effort to get him off. Should Dr. Deming forest State in which the red man has roamed, in by-gone for meanness, dishonesty and all sorts of injustice and The Abolition candidate for Governor, delivered an ad accede to their wishes, Le destroys himself. But we do years, for untold centuries, and then say whether here is malignity—just as protective tariff is another name for dress at the Court House, in Indianapo is, on Saturday not believe that he is a man of that character . His friends not a country that can afford productions to feed the swindling taxation of the poor for the benefit of the rich. last. He is a pleasant speaker, and a man of decided abilselected him because they thought he was firm and conworld! The idea that protection to manufactures would little interest in the questions discussed, and the Whigs sistent; and we think Gov. Noble will find that he is not afford a market for the surplus of this great garden spot of the globe was too absurd, and too unlike the expansive that effect. We intended to note some of the points of This is written on Friday; and at this time the Junto views of an American citizen, for him to consider it

Tariff --- State Debts.

collected

Mr. K. next alluded to the effort made by Senator ports to our surplus produce, while the late tariff law was under discussion, and the false and flimsy excuse of an Indiana Senator for voting against it, by referring to a futed the position taken by that Senator. Mr. K. also referred to the unjust coupling, by O. H. Smith, of South Carolina and Great Britain as the advo- voluntarily become slaves, by putting the yoke on their The best government is that in which the law speaks cates of direct taxation- an insidious attempt to create own necks sectional jealousy, so much condemned by the Father of short trip to some of his friends, returning about 11 stand up for Western rights and Western interests, and troduced a number of amusing anecdotes and illustrations. Subscribers continue to pour in. Our large edition of o'clock. Then he visited the U.S. Courts now in seas who will be an honor to our common country—as the said, suppose the doctrine advocated by the Whig gulate commerce with foreign nations, &c." the 3d number is entirely exhausted. Let them come on. sion. After dinner he attended the exercises of the representatives of a great and growing agricultural com-The large circulation already obtained shows conclusively Grand Masonie Lodge at the M. E. Church. The bal- munity, of an extent, in the emphatic language of Mr. The Yankees make our clothes and we feed them, what that the people are awake, and mean to make a great ance of the day was spent in exchanging civilities with Kennedy, capable of supplying provisions for the world would we, in the end, make by it? It reminded him of can any school boy be mistaken as to the construction of tariff bill till we can get cottons for nothing? His arguments They will not consent any longer to act as the mere the two boys who swapped packets all day and gave five the above sentence as it stands? We think not. Would forcibly reminded us of the chap who went to buy the It was desirable with his friends, personal and political, attaches of Eastern and Southern interests. We are now dollars to hoot each time. He enquired how much richer it not appear that the first power, "to levy and collect tax- stove. The purchaser, anxious to sell, praised his stoves Debts by the General Government, Mr. Kennedy was tation of that power! If not, then is there no meaning "I will take two stores and save it all !" He had some peculiar notions of his own, in relation that were imposed upon them, and the desire of that to pay the debts, and provide for the common defence and to a tariff, for which he wished no persons or party to be country, at an early period of our history, to create a general welfare of the United States; but all duties imheld responsible. There were only three medes known funded debt here, in order to make us tributary to her posts, and excises shall be uniform throughout the United him that it is owing to the high protective tariff tax of -and which he thought, under existing circumstances, tration of General Jackson-a debt which England had 3. To regulate commerce with foreign nations, and the best-which taxes the consumption of the country; hoped would have remained fastened upon us-for Euro- among the several States, and with Indian tribes. Con. Res. M. Johnson: - Aware of your arrival in our excise duties, which taxes the industry of the country, or pean capitalists were not asking the money when that Here now we see the rasculity intended; showing conarticles produced, and which he believed, as has already debt was paid off-the interest was all they demanded. clusively that "the power to collect taxes, duties, imposts, to express their feelings in a tangible shape. They have been tested in relation to the whiskey insurrection of They then looked around for means to create another excises," is a substantive power, and is expressly limited ed at a pretty round rate. Holland, the noted land of would, that he would cut his remarks short to give them therefore deputed the undersigned to respect to the provide for the common destinated in time of war, and debt here, and they found it in Mr. Clay's splendid systems. Thus: "to pay the debts and provide for the common destinated in time of war, and debt here, and they found it in Mr. Clay's splendid systems." direct taxation, the manner in which our State taxes are tem of Internal Improvements by the General Govern- fence and general welfare of the United States." These dened with debt than any other country in Europe, and ment; but this was cut short by General Jackson's veto are the purposes and the only purposes for which Con- probably in the world. The population is only 3,000,000, He took the ground that Congress had the power to on the Maysville road bill. But our opponents, said he, gress has a right to "collect taxes, duties, imposts, excis- -500 000 greater than the State of New York, and the impose a tariff for revenue purposes that might afford in- draw an argument in favor of paying the debts of the es;" and Caleb B. Smith to the contrary, neither he nor debt has reached the enormous sum of $650,000,000cidental or accidental protection to our mantifacturers, States from the fact that our last National debt was paid any other man can point to the place in the Constitution that is $240 of indel tedness for each man, woman and and he cared not how much protection was thus aforded, off, and afterwards a large surplus was created in the which authorizes Congress to levy taxes, &c. for protection was thus aforded, off, and afterwards a large surplus was created in the which authorizes Congress to levy taxes, &c. for protection was thus aforded, so that it operated equally upon all; but he denied the tigasury, through the operation of the tariff. The very tion. Let us digress here a little, right, under the constitution, of affording any other protok of a public dinner at such time as may suit my convent tection, and read the express and substantive powers of furnished means to extinguish the National debt, and did confer that power; but instead of showing his hearers the large surplus that had been distributed. That im-He here took occasion to notice two different copies of mense debt, with the exception of some twenty millions turiff billett. This may be honest; but it looks to us He next noticed the silly argument, so often used by one nation from another, without the consent of one of

tion of bats at four dollars and the British manufacturers they find that they have made a bad bargain, they are could afford them at the same price. But the New York arging a plan upon us which, if adopted, would intariff of two dollars is put upon each foreign hat, what we never could get rid of, rendering us as a nation, tribu-

are allowed to have a voi e in the selection of their public fairly and openly, and he shall have no cause to complain estates are protected. We can afford to take six dollars said that he can shoe a horse with as much skill and servants, by the whigs. We understand further that much of any unfairness on our part towards him. We have al- a barrel for our flour, but there being a tariff of six dol. alacrity as any man in the State; but his fellow citizens the consumer pays the whole duty or tax, as a general els for her people, and her palaces for her rulers; Go to and that they left the body, refusing to have any thing to without doing i justice to Gov Bigger or treating him rican farmer to get rich, to sell his flour at Liverpool for of the State and Nation. That he will again be elected new doctrine. (There is a quibble intended by the ad- deformed laborers—not overlooking the moral blindness knew better when they made use of such arguments. It should induce every farmer and laboring man to give him

Small Reer Whiggery. of the government; which could not well be less than Nothing more than that he did, as a b.y, what his good seventeen millions. The present expenses were twenty- sense and experience as a man has taught him he should not have done - nothing more, so far as he is concerned-

More of it.

cause they all had high protective tariffs; and he thought dear." their benefit ? What is the condition of the people of over others in carrying it on." England, whose protective policy he is so much in favor Now common sense, all experience, Clay and Everett witnesses, who happened to be present at the time

Then say if you are in favor of a course of policy which man quite right; but we think the first by far most likely free trade, and of supporting the Government by direct will assuredly bring you to the same condition. Never! to be right and the latter wrong. never! will we believe that the American people will

Base Forgery and Deception.

Mr. Kennedy had so effectually exposed the fraud upsis, we are free to confess that it does not so absolutely The debt of Prussia is considerably larger, but her re-

The convention which nominated David Wallace was a and calls it a "precious tissue of dastardly misrepresenting hatters say to Government, we want protection, and a deed be the foundation of a great National debt, which from that sacred instrument? We hope he was; and the Soap Factory man, because the supply being equal to mislead you. Off with their hides in August !

Who Pays the Tariff Tax?

West, in the sale of their produce. There were, at this voters of anybody and every body-who could be fer to Mr. C.ay. He has said-"We are instructed by all utter falsehoods on this subject, because aside from its experience, that the consumption of any article is in pro- assisted, as is generally and with good reason believedmanufactures, and three-fourths of the manufactures con. This imputation of the Banner is of a piece with the portion to the reduction of its price, and that, in general, not at present by Dr. Supp, who here-tofore has furnished samed in this country were now American. There were recent meanness of the Indiana Journal in relation to it may be taken as a rule, that the duty (tax) forms a part material for many of its leading articles, but who has ab-

Again says Mr. Everett :

directions in which the people have some real advantage.

of ! Look at the starving millions all over Europe! may be mistaken, and the Junto and the Soap Factory

Soap Factoryana.

Caleb B. Smith, in his speech for the Indianapolis Junrather unexpectedly in our city. He was immediately Indiana, now present at this place, had a treat, in the dis- withering scorn and contempt to deceive the to, contended that the Tariff lowered the prices of artisurrounded by friends, every one of whom were desirous cussion of two prominent questions of national policy, but was prepared to say that the Southern part of the country people thereby, committed by the writer of the Junto's cles consumed. In contending against the arguments of for him to prolong his stay, and to accept of some mark of rarely enjoyed. Andrew Kennedy, the only Democratic was the last portion of this Republic that would favor tariff pamphlet, that we thought they would be cautious Mr. Kennedy, that it increased the price, and that if the of again agitating a subject so easily proved against them. duty was so high that no revenue could be collected for But lo! to Caleb B. Smith belongs the dishonor of not the Government, that consequently the increase in the only trying to excuse the matter, but of trying also to de- price would go into the pockets of the manufacturer in The Committee are requested to mest at Drake's Hotel, than he did in 1840; and is still buoyant and elastic. classes of the country; but to show that this portion of white men in representation, her slaves would be taxed to consider it no better than forgery. The pamphlet pretends that the duty on nails was now more than nails could be to quote from the Constitution thus: "the Congress shall bought for; and that if foreign nails were introduced at have power to lay and collect taxes, duties, imposts, to re a low tariff, we should get them for nothing. This is a perfect coon argument. Let us try this role on what he This stands as printed in one part of the pamphlets, said about cottons. Since the high tariff has been on, he es, duties, imposts," is the substantive power, and that to highly; and among other things, told the man that a stove and for that purpose a meeting was called, and a com' confederacy, and it is time we should now set up for our- In relation to the question of Assumption of State regulate commerce with foreign nations, &c.' is the limi- would save half his wood. "Then," said the purchaser,

More Soap Factoryana.

Our Whig friends who heard Caleb B. Smith's speech, only possible way in which they could stand the burthens 1. To levy and collect taxes, duties, imposts, excises; comes it that those nations are so much in debt, and their people in such a miserable starved condition! We tell wood and drawers of water-that they might live in splendor and be entitled "My Lord Duke," &c. &c. But we wis ed to speak of the debts of those countries, the like of which the British Whig leaders in this country are enthen, but repudiation or bankruptcy. A writer in Hunt's Magazine says, "It is out of the question to pay. New debts are annually incurred to pay arrestages of interest. This state of things defies even hope." He adds. "The Dutch have struggled manfully against their increasing difficulties. They have cut down the perquisites of royalty so low, that their King is not much more than a head But Mr. Smith, the Soap Factory Mr. Smith we mean, TECTIVE DUTIES till the maximum of revenue has Burgomaster; and they have pared away their PROattempts to defend this garbling of the sacred charter of been procured." Go farther they cannot. Their Gov-this, he must think then as great fools as he admitted son's Assumption scheme—generously leaving the people son's Assumption scheme—generously leaving the people of the fools as he admitted son's Assumption scheme on the people of the fools as he admitted son's Assumption scheme on the people of the fools as he admitted son's Assumption scheme on the people of the fools as he admitted son's Assumption scheme on the people of the fools as he admitted son's Assumption scheme on the people of the fools as he admitted son's Assumption scheme on the people of the fools as he admitted son's Assumption scheme. practical illustrations, one of which was, that if the hat- but here this debt was urged upon us by the capitalists of merely leaves out the excuses or reasons given to conters of New York could afford to sell a certain descrip- Great Britain for their own advantage, and now when vince the Committee that it was not a Brib-! We will ed principally during the necessities of the French invasion, and at a high rate of interest." It is now being Could the writer of the pamphlet have been influenced gradually reduced, and is within such compass that it will

Faxony, Bavaria, Wurtemburgh and Hanover, are re-Bank Junto can control things to their liking. It was de- array of big words, but what do they amount to ! Does would in the end, destroying our would in charity have imputed it to ignorance. But presented to be in a good condition and above water; as d termined that Gov. Wallace should have the nomination, Gov. Bigger or his organ date to deny the truth of our nations. When it was openly defended and excused, we feel connations. When it was openly defended and excused, we feel connations. We fit should be remembered that debts which and they accomplished it. This we are glad of. But the statements? Does the Journal date to deny, what every they knew the foreign batter could not afford them for country would not bow down to the dictation of foreign in Europe would be deemed light, would here cause our manner in which it was brought about is a fair subject for one who has listened to Gov. Bigger's speeches knows to less. If any foreign hats were then sold, the excess of bond holders; but that our institutions might remain free that he who would desecrate that sacred instrument for people to stand aghast. We are not used to being ground political purposes, is a bastard son of the American soil. in the mill of heavy taxation. But the people of Europe know how it was done, what occurred, and the ununimity one by to avow, what he is no doubt secretly in favor of _____ sury; but would come out of the pockets of the con-_____ fundamental property and the ununimity of the pockets of the con-_____ sury; but would come out of the pockets of the con-_____ fundamental property and the ununimity of the pockets of the con-_____ fundamental property and the ununimity of the pockets of the con-_____ fundamental property and the ununimity of the pockets of the con-_____ fundamental property and the ununimity of the pockets of the con-_____ fundamental property and the ununimity of the pockets of the con-_____ fundamental property and the ununimity of the pockets of the con-_____ fundamental property and the ununimity of the pockets of the con-_____ fundamental property and the ununimity of the pockets of the con-_____ fundamental property and the ununimity of the pockets of the con-_____ fundamental property and the ununimity of the pockets of the con-_____ fundamental property and the ununimity of the pockets of the con-_____ fundamental property and the ununimity of th among the leaders and themselves. We understand that the Assumption of the State Debts and the consequent sumer, and when purchased of our citizens the excess be considered one of the most premasing for usefulness in openly encourage such things? The pamphlet is among that the slightest burden taken from their shoulders seems Mr. Campbell, appointed a substitute in place of a delegate transfer of the direct Taxing power over our people for would go into the pockets of the manufacturer as clear the West. Until the age of nineteen or twenty, he you, and so is the Constitution. Compare them, see the to them as great an alleviation as the payment of the entire debts of many of our most heavily indebted States. would seem to their population,

Cross the ocean to Europe-traverse that land in every The Junto's "Other Side" says that "the position that direction-witness her half clad peasantry-her mud hov-Soap Factory man illustrates his position by an exam- contrary, mark the officers and menials of government we will show the futility of it in other respects, even con- ter these things have been seen, return here, and say if sidering it valid and practicable. Suppose, said he, pork you will support the British whig policy which has reducwas $2 00 a hundred at Cincinnati, and suppose a Cana- ed one half the world to such wretchedness and wo! Say 50 cts a hundred. If, as is the case, there should have to British and American nabob bondholders a frontful been already sufficient pork in market, without the Cana- revenue, the public lands,-that you may be directly taxdian's, to supply the actual demand, -could the Canadian ed for the support of government, and the aristocracy ! add the duty to the established price, and obtain $2 50 We believe that the American people will never do it with per hundred from the purchaser? Certainly not, says their eyes open. Beware then, how you let the whige or for $1.50, if not obliged to pay the 50 cents duty? Of editorials. We looked elsewhere to discover who is course he could and would. And the reduction in the meant by James, and we found the charge made directly price of his pork would tend to diminish the price of eve- against James Whitecoms. This imputation is totally but he did not, in any way, directly or indirectly, even

H. S. Lane.

The Journal thinks "it is perhaps worth while to state" jucrative employment-and ought not to have it, if it is coonskin harangue at the Court House, " pronounced a recent publication in reference to hom," made by us, " to be a gross misrepresentation." We did not understand him to make any such distinct pronunciation, though it is true he endeavored to convey such an impression. He "Some of the Memorialists have gone so far as to deny the repeated a part of his observations at that time, to-wit Smith, the Soap Factory man, Caleb B. was high in plain proposition, that it is more profitable to nations or to a That he should think the pamphlet dear at half the his praise of Great Britain and other European countries, be- individuals to buy what they want cheap, rather than price; but he did not deny, though he no doubt in-"Commerce, though of the utmost importance to na. tended the audience should infer that he denied, also say we should follow their example in protecting our citizens, tions, is not a proper subject for much legislation, if it is ing that the pamplilet "advocated seditions doctrines, and People of Indiana: Does not this prove what we have only to be protected and taxed. It should be left free to ought to be suppressed by the Government. We repeat always told you-that the whigs want a rich and splendid find its own channels, and then it will contribute to keep the charge against him, and if he will deny it, in black Government, to be supported by the laboring classes for directions in which the results have some real advantage and white, so that there can be no chance for his escape. by quibbling, we will prove the charge by respectable taxation - Northern Indianian.

Bear it in mind, that the man who makes such an as